YOUR ENTRY

Please describe (maximum 500 words) how your class has become engaged in learning a foreign language. There are no particular boxes to tick, but please try to demonstrate how your experience of foreign languages in the Primary Classroom increased:

- the appetite to learn of all concerned
- the various achievements of the group
- the awareness of another culture that was raised
- the involvement of the local community, or communities overseas

We need practical evidence of what has been done. We do NOT need you to create anything NEW.

You might wish to include:

- links to your school website
- examples of Pupils' work or worksheets
- examples of presentations to pupils, parents or community
- communications with and from the local community and beyond

The Primary Languages Classroom Awards includes in its supporters:

The Goethe Institut - London, Ambassade de France, Service Culturel - London, BESA, Rafi.ki, Association of Language Learners, Little Linguist, E-Swots, The Specialist Schools and Academies Trust, Manic Monkey

Please return your entry by Friday 15th May 2009 to:
